A SPECIAL EDITION OF COSMOPROF ASIA 2022 TO BE HELD IN SINGAPORE

[2 March 2022, Hong Kong] The Organisers, BolognaFiere Group and Informa Markets, announced today Cosmoprof Asia 2022 will be relocated from Hong Kong to Singapore, from 16-18 November 2022 at Singapore Expo as a special edition.

This decision was made after extensive discussions with business leaders, exhibitors and partners who have contributed to the success of the event over the years. The current entry restrictions for travellers to Hong Kong has meant a potential disruption to both exhibitors and visitors for Cosmoprof Asia in November, as inbound travel to Hong Kong is likely subject to quarantine restrictions.

Hence, the project of Cosmoprof Asia 2022 in Singapore was born. This Asia's premier beauty event strongly supported by the world's leading cosmetics suppliers in the past 25 years will continue its mission of "Connecting All Sectors of Beauty Industry in Asia-Pacific Region". Keeping the same show dates 16-18 November, it will be more convenient for exhibitors and visitors from across Asia and the rest of the world to make plans for 2022.

"The APAC region remains a crucial reference for global economics, and Cosmoprof Asia is continuing its growth in the area," said Antonio Bruzzone, General Manager of BolognaFiere Group and Director of Cosmoprof Asia Ltd. "In 2022, Singapore is the best location to welcome stakeholders and professionals again, offering a not-to-be-missed experience to do business in person".

Organiser - Cosmoprof Asia Ltd

Cosmoprof Asia and Cosmopack Asia 2022 will take place at Singapore Expo, a world-class exhibition center. From the cosmetic supply chain to finished products and brands, all sectors of the beauty industry will gather under one roof, buyers can easily source from 10+ product sectors all in one venue.

Singapore offers a vibrant and innovative business environment and has a proven record in facilitating quality events. It is a well-known global transport hub with one-flight connections from hundreds of cities around the world, which will facilitate business and networking activities among the international beauty players. Singapore is very well situated in Southeast Asia and creates further excellent business opportunities for our exhibitors and visitors in the region.

“This special edition of Cosmoprof Asia in Singapore will figure as the most important gathering of international beauty stakeholders, supplier and buyers since our last edition in 2019.” said David Bondi, Senior Vice President – Asia of Informa Markets and Director of Cosmoprof Asia Ltd. “Our proactive decision to relocate the fair from Hong Kong to Singapore shows our determination to help the industry to reconnect in 2022. We are confident in Singapore’s strong reputation as a preferred destination for business events, and look forward to welcoming our delegates from around the world in the Lion City this November.”

While waiting to meet each other face-to-face in November 2022, Cosmoprof Asia’s beauty community will have the opportunity to participate to the virtual event Cosmoprof Asia Digital Week, from 27 June to 5 July 2022, a match-making platform for buyers and sellers to consolidate and facilitate business connections.
